Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Is Not A Slogan —It's A "Must" For Many Sections Of Fulton

Next week Fulton is observing Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Week. In this respect we are reminded of an incident several years ago when we asked a Metropolitan newspaper to do a feature story on Fulton, its characteristics and its attributes. Said the editor: "Let's wait until the Summer, Fulton is a sad-looking place when there are no leaves and trees to hide the drabness."

And that it is and even those of us who love the place can see that if ever a town needed some real cleaning up it's this one.

With as many civic and cultural groups in Fulton, dedicated to building a community we'd like to pass on to you some things we've wondered sometimes. And they are:

Why only a portion of Fairview Cemetery is kept mowed and well kept, while other graves are left to submerge in tall weeds and even unsightly debris.

Why some group dedicated to outdoor beauty does not undertake to beautify the railroad tracks on Lake Street with flowers and shrubs and trees to cover up the bleak appearance of tracks right through the middle of town.

Why private or commercial interests do not undertake to hide the ghastly sight of a junk yard near Greenlea Cemetery.

Why residents of Highlands refuse to incorporate into the City of Fulton, enter the jurisdiction of Planning and Zoning, and perhaps put a halt to all the commercial property coming into the area to forever consider that section as a growing residential area.

Why down-town merchants, as a matter of civic pride do not police the alleys of Fulton against the horrible sight of a public garbage dump.

Why some group does not undertake the project of beautifying Harris Fork Creek in spite of its unpopularity as a community hazard.

Why some commercial interests, which put highway signs on the approaches to Fulton, do not keep them in good repair or remove them entirely. A beat-up, broken-down highway sign is an invitation for the approaching motorist to "stay away" from that place of business. And Fulton for that matter!

Why some commercial property-owners fail to see that their property needs painting up, fixing up and cleaning up and its demerit to the appearance of the city.

There are dozens of other "we wonder" but these we see every day and we just keep wondering... that's all!

The Swimming Pool Needs YOUR Help To Get Going

Fultonians who are young in spirit as well as young in age have generously pitched in over $10,000 during the past ten days toward construction of a swimming pool for Fulton and its area.

The proposed pool will be a wonderful asset to the community and to its youth. From past experience in other communities, we can say without question that the younger life of Fulton will concentrate its summer-time activities around a swimming pool.

Leaders in the drive are hoping to finish their whirl-wind drive for funds in another ten days, so plans can be drawn and construction arranged in time for use this summer. They need $20,000.00 If you haven't contributed, don't wait until you're asked—sit down right now and mail what you can afford to Post Office Box 357, Fulton.

This is a non-profit project for the good of the community and its area, and it will serve a wonderful purpose for years to come. If you are one of the community, have you helped, yet??

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

Woman's Noblest Career

By Richard J. Cushing,
Archbishop of Boston

A MOTHER'S CAREER is a strangely wonderful one. Doubtless there are satisfying careers in the business and professional world, but none so consoling as the one that starts with the thrill of teaching one's own flesh and blood to say his prayers and tucking him in at night.

What's more, motherhood is a highly specialized career that demands knowledge, training and preparation. Make no mistake, a good Christian family is not the creation of chance, even though many people approach marriage as if such were the case. A truly Christian family is the product of much work and love. Especially on the part of the mother.

TO BEGIN WITH, a mother has the important duty of educating her children. It is she who molds the minds and wills of the precious trusts God has given her, and upon her success or failure depends the future success or failure of her children.

Mindful of this obligation, the first truths a mother will impress on her children are the religious ones. From his mother the child will learn about God and his duties toward Him. He will come to know that all is done in God's presence and that the only real happiness lies in conformity to His Will.

TO DEVELOPE a sense of responsibility in her children, the Christian mother charges them with household duties ranging from picking up their own clothes to cooking Sunday dinner. She trains them to bear the consequences of their actions by gently refereeing their little differences.

When her daughters grow older, she will impress upon them the importance of their future role as homemakers. She will present her growing sons with the standards of conduct characteristic of Christian gentlemen. By encouraging them to bring their friends into the family circle, the mother stimulates social activity that is wholesome and constructive.

AS THE HEART and center of the home, a mother is most practical in the expression of her love. Meals are appetizingly prepared and promptly served. The house is always in good order, yet not so precise as to become a show case rather than a home. Though her love for her children is unquestioned, she treats each with the little individual difference that is due his particular temperament and personality.

Nor does the Christian mother become so involved with her children to forget that she is also a wife. Ever conscious of the bond of love that unites her to her husband, she will be a loving and understanding help-mate to him.

SUCH IS THE challenge of a mother. Hers is a task that would be impossible but for one thing—prayer. It is in answer to daily prayer that a mother is privileged to see her progeny advance in wisdom, age, grace, and Christlike deportment before God and men. What a wonderful career!

Building A New Store Building At Dukedom (more than 60 years ago):

Mrs. Clara Caldwell of Fulton identified her uncle, Athol Terry, as the one sitting in the buggy with his feet on the wheel, (commenting that he formerly worked for Jim Cavendar at Dukedom—and that her family records indicated that "Uncle Athol" died in 1899.) Other callers at the News office identified Charlie H. Ross as the man standing in front of the buggy and Ben Winston as the young man sitting on the ladder.

R. L. McNatt of Dresden has submitted a complete list of the people in the picture—and here they are (he failed to say who was who): Clint Taylor, Harry Osborn, Job Atkin, Athol Terry, Sam Quill, Ben Winston, Will Rhodes, Claud Henley, Charlie Ross, John Henley and Duncan Simmons.

And the horse's name was Nellie. Next picture in this series of old-timers will be the "Fulton Concert Band." Watch for it in next week's issue.

In a telephone conversation with Mrs. F. H. Riddle of Mayfield, a former Fultonian, she was telling us that her son, Hal, served as best man at the wedding of Miss Lee Ann Merriweather and Frank Alletier in San Francisco, Calif. on Monday morning, April 21.

The wedding of "Miss America of 1955" was shown on Dave Garraway's show early Monday morning of last week and some Fultonians happened to catch the show and recognized Hal, a former Fulton boy.

Miss Merriweather is a Broadway actress and also acts in the movies. Mr. Alletier has been appearing for over a year in the Broadway play, "The Bell's Are Ringing," starring Miss Judy Holiday.

Hal, who has made one movie and appeared in several TV productions since going to Hollywood last fall, flew to San Francisco for the five-day of activities preceding the wedding.

According to Mrs. Riddle she will have a big story for us on Hal soon.

Also, in our telephone conversation, Mrs. Riddle told us of a luncheon she gave on Wednesday of last week, honoring a group of Fulton ladies. Those from here attending were Mrs. L. O. Bradford, Mrs. Sarah Meacham, Mrs. Bessie Clifton and Mrs. Daisy Terry of St. Louis, and formerly you in another 18 months or so." Mr. Looney is a brother of Mrs. Pete Green of Fulton.

A lady friend of ours was telling us recently of an amusing experience of hers. She went to a grocery store to get some Frosted, a substance used in making ice cream. She asked the woman clerk if she had any frosted. The clerk's answer was, "Yes." Our friend said, "Well, where is it?" The answer she got was, "Here in my mouth." Our friend said that she was so embarrassed because the clerk had thought she had said "false teeth" instead of "Frosted," that she turned and left the store without purchasing a single item.

All Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Cubs are invited to take part in the gigantic Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up parade in Fulton and South Fulton on May 3. The high school bands are being asked to take part, also, and it is hoped that a number of floats, cars, trucks and other vehicles will be entered. Those taking part in the parade should be at Fulton High School at 1 p. m. as the parade will begin promptly at 1:30.

My friend, Jack Foy has received an interesting letter from Herbert R. Mayes, editor of the "Good Housekeeping" magazine. Jack, a local songwriter, is a member of the Songwriters' protective Association.

Mr. Mayes' letter to Jack follows:

Is "The Star Spangled Banner" a good national anthem? Do we need a new one?

With the cooperation of many agencies and organizations we are making what we hope is an intelligent effort to find out.

Critics contend that "The Star Spangled Banner" (which was declared our national anthem by Act of Congress in 1891) is difficult for many people to sing; that its music is not very good; and that it is not even American—having its origin in an old English drinking song. As for the lyrics, some critics get fairly violent on the subject.

On the other hand, defenders of the anthem feel that all this matters very little. They see the anthem as an important part of our nation's tradition. For, as one says, it sums up "Ideas and images and recollections that go back over a hundred years."

In any case, our anthem is probably the most neglected American song. A high-fidelity recording of it isn't even available commercially. Very few Americans know more than its opening stanza, and most Americans aren't even sure of that. Only trained voices can manage its range of tones. Few adults, other than baseball or fight fans, regularly hear it. There isn't even any general agreement as to how it should be sung no fewer than 271 copyrighted versions of it are in the Library of Congress.

What can be done to make our national anthem the popular piece of music it should be? Is the answer one standardized official version of "The Star Spangled Banner"? An intensive program to promote more frequent playing and singing of the anthem?

Or is a new anthem (words and, or music) needed, one that should be written? Or do you feel that there are any specific songs and, or poems already in our literature that would make a better, anthem than the one we now have?

I shall be most grateful for any comments you would care to make.

Sincerely,
Herbert R. Mayes

Homemakers To Observe HD Week

Kentucky will join other states in observing National Home Demonstration Week from May 4 to 10. More than 6½ million women taking part in the national program will review past accomplishments and consider how they can help today's home make tomorrow's world better.

Home demonstration work is an educational program conducted cooperatively by the U. S. Department of Agriculture Extension Service and land-grant colleges, of which Kentucky is one. Its goal is to strengthen home and family life, provide opportunities for homemakers to learn and apply new information developed through home economics research, and to become more effective citizens in their communities, said Miss Viola Hansen, chairman of the Extension home economics program at the University of Kentucky.

Of direct assistance in the statewide program are six supervisors, 10 specialists and 124 county home demonstration agents, all of whom are home economists.

Hundreds of volunteer leaders also give generously of their time and energy to further the program which has a membership of 27,000. It is estimated that housewives in about 250,000 homes in the state received this year information in feeding and clothing their families, in better management of their homes and in making them more attractive.

Do-it-yourself projects have long been popular in home demonstration work, making possible many things otherwise not attainable, said Miss Hansen.

For example, homemakers in 41 counties had some type of clothing construction; in eight counties, 1,600 women received information on wardrobe planning; homemakers in 17 counties profited financially and otherwise through millinery lessons; and in 30 counties women learned about financial planning and wise spending of money. Property rights and privileges aroused considerable interest among housewives and their husbands in 33 counties. Housing clinics with discussions on remodeling and building met many needs in 22 counties, while women in 66 counties refurnished furniture, made draperies, slipcovers, lampshades and rugs. Basic meal planning and food preparation had excellent acceptance in 23 counties.

Twin-Cities Businessmen In Review:

Bizzle Is Manager Of Fulton Theatre

Louis "Nubbin" Bizzle

Lewis "Nubbin" Bizzle, 39, has been manager of the Fulton Theatre since October of 1952.

Mr. Bizzle, a very likeable person, is a member and past president of the Young Men's Business Club and one year was winner of the "Key Award" for outstanding service to the club.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church and a member of the Fulton-South Fulton Chamber of Commerce, and over the years has taken part in the Christmas Basket project, Boy Scout and other fund drives in town.

Nubbin was born in Fulton on Sept. 11, 1918, and is the son of W. O. Bizzle and the late Mrs. Bizzle. He attended South Fulton

High School, and his first job was posting bills with the Orpheum Theatre. This was in 1934. He started as usher on the door at the Orpheum in 1935 or '36, and the following year began learning to be a projectionist.

When the new Fulton Theatre opened in about 1937 he moved there as relief operator and worked as such until the war when he was promoted to head projectionist. In 1948 he was transferred to Columbus, Miss., where he was doorman and assistant manager under Burgess Waltman, former manager here. He returned to Fulton the next year and became manager of the Fulton Theatre in 1952, the position he has held since.

During his theatre career in Fulton he has worked at all three theatres, the Orpheum, the Strand (which was formerly located on Lake Street), and the Fulton Theatre, working under Warner Brothers, Malco Theatres, Inc., and the Paramount-Gulf Theatre Inc.

Mr. Bizzle has been a member of either the Fulton or the South Fulton Fire Departments for the past 15 years. At present, he is a member of the South Fulton department.

The show manager married Miss Anna E. Lester of Arlington, Ky., in 1943. They have two daughters, Judy, 12, a student at South Fulton School and Beverly, 5. Mr. Bizzle's hobby is fishing.

Diary of Doin's

By Mary Nelle Wright

Hear Mary-Nelle's program, "My Fair Lady" every day on WFUL at 9:30 a.m., Monday through Friday.

There'll be MUSIC IN THE AIR—this week and next week in the home town. Tonight (Thursday) Arthur Roman will present the Fulton High School Band in a delightful concert. Along with the band will be the Junior High Girls Glee Club who will present several numbers. Feature soloists from the band will be trumpeters, John Cunningham and James Clark. David Cunningham, Danny Carver and Warren Nanney will play a trumpet trio. James Reed will give a piano solo and Edward Butler will perform on the sousaphone. Edward has the singular honor of having been chosen to play at the State Music Festival held at Bowling Green, where he won a three in the state competition.

Elaine Butler will play a fine solo and accompanists for the program will be Marion Blackstone and Judy Moore.

In fact, it will be well worth your while to attend the festivities held at Carr Auditorium Thursday because preceding the concert—you'll have an opportunity to see the nice exhibits on display by the Home Economic and Manual Training classes of Fulton High.

The whole week will be filled with activity for Fulton High and South Fulton Bands as they will participate in the Clean-Up Parade in Union City and will go to Paris, Tenn. for the World's Biggest Fish Fry and Parade.

And from lullabies to folk songs to ballads, to the works of our great composers—will be presented for our pleasure on next Monday night when the Music Department of the Woman's Club gives its Annual Evening of Music at the Woman's Club at 8 p. m. The members of the Music Department have worked for several weeks in order to bring good music to our lives—and I wonder how many of us realize how much richer we are for it. The Evening of Music was scheduled for tonight... but due to the conflict with the Band Concert, it was decided to postpone the program until Monday.

Another interesting event scheduled for next week will be the Annual Home Tour by members of the Junior Woman's Club. Abby McBride and Ann Robinson are co-chairmen for this year's tour and they have included five of Fulton's most interesting homes on their agenda. All members of the club will meet at the club home at 7:15 p. m. and will go to Ruby McDade's lovely colonial home on Third Street for their first stop. Maurine Grisham and Bobby Crutchfield will be the next "hosts" and we know they'll enjoy seeing the MANY lovely pieces of antique furniture in the Grisham-Crutchfield homes on Browder Street. Next, they'll go to Country Club Court where Lois Jean Miller will greet them at her "like new" ranch type home. Concluding the tour, they will visit with Ruth Rudolph, whose ever so attractive home is also in the courts. And they will have refreshments with Ruth. We think this is such a nice thing for the Junior Club to include in their programs each year. We remember how delighted we were at this time last year when the club came 'a callin' on us in our little red house.

Climaxing the year's activities at the Woman's Club will be the Annual Flower Show which will be given at the open meeting on Friday of this week at the club home. This is one of the most outstanding programs presented each year with members of the Garden Department serving as hosts. Kathryn Hancock is chairman of the group and serving on her committee on arrangements will be Mrs. Clint Reeds, Mrs. Leon Browder, Mrs. J. E. Hutcherson, Mrs. Robert Fowlkes, Mrs. D. C. Thacker, Mrs. S. M. DeMyer and Mrs. Ray Graham.

Mrs. Roy Latta will serve as leader for the meeting. Featured in this year's show will be living room, hall and mantle arrangements of flowers and ribbons will be given for specimens in the different classes of flowers.

Mrs. S. M. DeMyer will play several piano selections during the social hour. Hostesses for the occasion will be Mesdames C. L. Drysdale, J. W. Elledge, W. S. Atkins, Grace Newton, J. E. Fall, Sr., Warren Graham, T. J. Smith and Hunter Whitesell.

William and Exie Hill had a nice visit in Decatur, Alabama with their son, Billy and Joyce Hill, and little daughter, Renee.

Mrs. James Hicks was hostess to a birthday party Friday, April 25, honoring her daughter, Janie

They also visited relatives in Fayette and Florence, Ala. And while "mom and dad" were visiting around... their daughter, Beverly, who attends U. of Ky. was busy having fun, too. Last week-end her sorority, Chi Omega, had their Spring Formal, which is one of the outstanding social affairs of the season... and our little friend, Bev, was persuaded to sing with the orchestra during the dance... and that gal SINGS like a NIGHTINGALE.

How glad we were to be at lunch last Friday with Lorene Hughes from Paducah. Lorene comes down ever so often and all of the "gang" gets together for lunch... then off some of us go... to WORK... and other have an afternoon of bridge, because LORENE really LOVES it... She spent the weekend with Elizabeth and Harvey Cardwell at their home on Carr Street.

How sorry we were to tell Esther Rout goodbye. Esther has been a guest of her sister, Linnie Clark, at the Clark home on Pearl Street for several weeks. She returned to her home in Columbus, Ohio on Saturday.

Guests in the I. B. Cook-Paul Truett home in Highlands this week are Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cook and daughter, Mrs. Herb Stephens, and daughter, Jenelle of Evansville, Indiana.

Elva and Ann Fall, Mrs. J. D. Davis spent Saturday in Memphis. Mrs. Stella Yates is visiting in the home of her son, Lawson Yates, in Nashville for a few weeks. Lawson and his attractive wife spent the weekend in Fulton and his mother and she returned home with them.

How nice it was to see the Bolivia Club enjoying lunch together at the Derby last Friday. We know the "get together" was planned in honor of Daisy Terry, who is a guest of Eliza White on Eddings Street. After the luncheon—the ladies drove out to Ann Whitel's home on the Union City Road and had fun chatting and playing their favorite game. Those who attended were Daisy and Eliza, Bertie Brady, Annie Laurie Baldrige, Ellen Davis and Mrs. Tom Franklin.

Members of the Fulton High senior play cast, the director, Mary Hughes Burrow,—"the stage hands", in fact, EVERYONE who helped make the play a success—were entertained with a gay party Monday night. Barbara Ann Boyd and Bud White were hosts for the delightful occasion and everyone had loads of fun while they cooked hamburgers—with ALL the TRIMMINGS—in the Boys' lovely back yard. (Can it be POSSIBLE that these "children" are GRADUATING from high school—why it seems only yesterday that Your Diarist was their KINDERGARDEN teacher!)

Mrs. Wilmon Boyd was hostess to a delightful bridge-luncheon Saturday at one o'clock at the Park Terrace for members of the Saturday Bridge Club.

Places for ten were set at an attractively appointed table, centered with a colorful arrangement of lilacs and tulips.

Following the luncheon, games of bridge were enjoyed and Mrs. Fred Cloy of Union City was high scorer. Mrs. Warren Graham was second high. Both received lovely prizes.

Included in the guest list were—Mrs. Steve Wiley, Mrs. Charles Gregory, Mrs. Hunter Whitesell, Mrs. Smith Atkins, Mrs. V. J. Voegeli, Mrs. Arch Huddleston, Mrs. Frank Wiles of Martin, Mrs. Fred Cloy of Union City and Mrs. Warren Graham.

Robert Lamb—

"Remember the Alamo"; World War II veterans say, "Remember Pearl Harbor", but Mr. Lamb remembers Feb. 21, 1921!

In January, 1924 when there were little or no hard surface roads in the country, mud was so deep that travel by horse and buggy was almost impossible, so Mr. Lamb would take about half of his mail for the route and start out walking, serving the east portion. He would go the nearest way, which was through fields and woods and he would have to climb wire, as well as old crooked rail fences. When he had delivered mail for this portion of the route, he would end his journey at McConnell, Tenn., about noon. It so happened that an Illinois Central passenger train was due at McConnell near 1 p. m. for Fulton. There he would get his ticket and board the train for town.

The next day he would take mail for the west portion of his route. He would start out walking, serving this portion of his route in the same manner as he did the east portion the day before. But on this day he would end his journey at a little railroad station called Pierce. Getting there about noon, after the mail had been delivered, he would board another I. C. train for Fulton. Each day he would walk about 10 to 12 miles. However, this procedure lasted only a few days, but again the old slogan was carried out.

Mr. Lamb was always an obliging soul and remembers one summer on several occasions carrying a package of hot food for a woman to her sick sister, living a few miles down the road.

In the horse and buggy days when it would take most all day to make the trip on a 25-mile route, the carriers would take their lunch with them, and usually would eat while driving along the route. Mr. Lamb remembers some of real cold days, when the temperature would be near zero or below, when at noon when he would open his lunch and start to satisfy his appetite, the food would be frozen.

"I ate a good many frozen biscuits. When the thermos bottle became a reality it was a luxury to have a warm drink to go with the frozen food."

Mr. Lamb said that there was one great advantage of the horse and buggy over even the latest and most modern automobile. Just listen to this true story. On one occasion when he was not able to go on the route, due to illness, the regular substitute was not available. Lawson Roper, assistant postmaster at Fulton, who was then a clerk in the office, agreed to take the route on that day and to drive Mr. Lamb's old trusty horse. After the mail was ready, Mr. Roper started out on the route, not knowing which road to take. At the intersection of the road, he would want to go one way, but the horse wanted to go the other way. After a few times like this, Mr. Roper said the argument stopped and the horse was allowed to go as he pleased which he did, and about 2 p. m. they arrived back at the office. The horse had not missed one box.

"The automobile, with all of its modern conveniences and great luxury, has not been made to accomplish anything like that," Mr. Lamb exclaimed. "I'm sure Mr. Roper remembers that day!"

Mr. Lamb has worked under eight postmasters—J. Ray Graham, R. B. (Polly) Beades, Claud P. Freeman, Mack Roach, Bailey Huddleston, Bill Browning, N. W. (Jack) Carter and the present postmaster, Fred Brady.

Mr. Lamb is a Methodist, holding membership at the First Methodist Church in Fulton. He is a member and past president of the Morman B. Daniel's Bible Class and has not missed a Sunday without attending Sunday School somewhere in more than a quarter of a century. He is a member of the Board of Stewards at his church.

Mr. Lamb is a member of the National Rural Letter Carrier Association and is a past district chaplain in the organization. He is a charter member of Marshall Alexander Post 72 of the American Legion at Fulton and is past district chaplain of that organization. After 25 years as chaplain of Post 72 he was awarded a life membership in the American Legion.

He has probably conducted more military funerals than any other chaplain in West Tennessee and Kentucky. He has been in charge of decorating the veterans' graves in this area for several years.

Mr. Lamb's main hobby is photography, mostly movie pictures. He has quite a collection of films and he says his prize one was made at Fort Campbell, Ky., about three years ago. This picture shows the dropping out of planes several jeeps, followed by 350 paratroopers, jumping from the planes and parachuting to the ground.

He is now in the process of making a film, which he hopes will be another "prize film", calling it his retirement film. It is being made in and around the post office, showing postal employees in action—rural carriers leaving to serve their routes. He will be included in the film.

Mr. Lamb enjoys showing his pictures when the opportunity affords.

Mr. Lamb married Mrs. Clara Pewitt and they have two children, Mrs. Ray F. Omar of Fulton and Mrs. Charles A. Williams of Paducah. They have two granddaughters, Miss Charlton Gaye

The Fulton News, Thursday, May 1, 1958, Page 5

Williams and Mrs. Freddie J. Mills, both of Paducah, and one great-grandson, little Freddie Mills, II of Paducah.

Mr. Lamb says, "I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to all the people that I have delivered mail to, for their many acts, deeds and words of kindness, during the years of my serving them as my patrons, and for the good fellowship that has existed while being your carrier. I would like to wish each and everyone of you much joy, prosperity and happiness throughout the coming years."

Lightning Strikes Hancock Home; Burns To Ground

Mrs. Maurice Hancock Receives Minor Burns About The Head, Face

Mrs. Maurice Hancock was burned, but not seriously, Thursday afternoon at 5, when her home on Highway 307 was destroyed by fire, after being struck by lightning.

Mrs. Hancock and her baby had been to the grocery and returned home during the electrical storm late Thursday afternoon. She left her baby in the car and ran to open the front door, before returning for the child. As she opened the front door, flames shot from the interior of the building, burning her eyes, eye lashes and hair.

It is believed that the house was struck by lightning as the transformer from the house to the main electric lines was charred all over.

Mr. Hancock operates the Gulf Station on Mayfield Highway here and was not at home at the time of the fire.

All possessions of the Hancock family were lost in the fire.

The house, which was owned by Warren Bard, was partially covered by insurance.

Watch Out for Spring!

March winds and April showers May help make the May Flowers, But oft before the flowers bloom, Sometimes there is quite a boom!

In coughs, colds and red noses, Before we clip the red roses, Should this plague settle on you,

We can tell you what to do:

Take a dose of EZ-O-DYNE,

Ease the pain and clear the shine

Off your nose, the weeping too

And make the sniffles just a few

Then, sip that good KRE-O-TAR

Before the cough goes too far.

Now if your chest gets too tight

And bronchitis you have to fight,

Get a bottle of BRONKEROL RUB,

Just after you get out of tub,

And before you go to bed

Rub your chest until it's red.

Farm News, Meetings, Events

(Ed's note: the following information, supplied THE NEWS by the USDA, ASC, nearby County Agents and agricultural agencies will be of special interest to progressive farmers in the Ken-Tenn area.)

Farmers who have put land in the Soil Bank's 1958 Acreage Reserve should remember to control noxious weeds and otherwise take care of the "reserved" acreage. C. C. Vaughn, Chairman, Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded growers today.

Under the Acreage Reserve agreement, the Chairman explained, the producer agrees to take steps to prevent the Acreage Reserve from spreading noxious weeds. A list of weeds designated as "noxious" in Tennessee is available at the County ASC office. Mr. Vaughn added that the farmer must also be careful about meeting such other program requirements as preventing erosion on Acreage Reserve land, when required by the County ASC Committee. Failure to meet any of these provisions could mean loss of the payment the farmer would otherwise have earned for putting his land in the Acreage Reserve.

There is no reimbursement under the Acreage Reserve agreement for practices such as controlling noxious weeds or preventing erosion on designated land, Chairman Vaughn pointed out, and payments for carrying out conservation practices under the Soil Bank's Conservation Reserve program are not available for land designated under the Acreage Reserve program.

However, farmers may be able to obtain Agricultural Conservation Program cost-share assistance in carrying out certain conservation practices on Acreage Reserve land. Information about the possibility of receiving ACP assistance on Acreage Reserve land may also be obtained at the County ASC Office.

THE DAIRYMAN and the A D A

I would like to take this opportunity to discuss the functions of the dairymen's marketing organization, the American Dairy Association. This Association was formed by and for dairymen throughout the nation. The only relation between the American Dairy Association and various milk plants or plants that produce dairy products is the fact that the A. D. A. take-out is made by these local concerns and forwarded to the American Dairy Association. It should be understood that no manufacturer or milk plant will profit from this farmers' donation by using these funds for their own advertising.

The American Dairy Association deductions only 2 cents per hundred pounds of milk. This is strictly on a voluntary basis and can be started or stopped any time the dairymen wishes.

Every farmer who produces milk for any market benefits from the advertising made by the A. D. A. This includes fluid milk, milk for manufacturing cheese and any other dairy products.

It is a proven fact that advertising pays, otherwise every industry in the nation has been wrong. The American Dairy Farmer also has an industry to tell the buying public about and that is milk and dairy products. This industry has been effectively sold to the consumer by the American Dairy Association.

The A. D. A. was organized along the same lines as the Citrus Growers Association in the west and other organizations are watching the results of these advertising agencies in order to determine their effectiveness on the buying public.

YES, Mr. Dairy Farmer the American Dairy Association is doing a fine job of selling your product, and remember, it works for you regardless of the type milk or product you market. Now is a good time for you to put your 2 cents in and it really means something. It's a small price to pay for national advertising.

James Meacham, owner of Meacham's Grocery and former member of the Fulton City Council, found a little booklet in an old house back some time ago, which is quite amusing.

The booklet contains the rules, rates and regulations of the Fulton Water Works of Fulton, with information for water consumers in effect Jan. 1, 1913. It was published by order of the Board of Councilmen. At the time, J. R. Milner was superintendent of the City Water Works.

We found several of the rules and regulations quite amusing. Rule 11 states: Street sprinkling must be confined to area of street frontage paid for, and shall not extend beyond the middle of the street, and must not be used in such quantities as to muddy the street.

Rule 14 reads: Lawn sprinkling is limited to 4 hours each day during the sprinkling season, which shall be from May 1st to Nov. 1st, and no sprinkling shall be done at any other hours than between 6 a. m. and 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. and 8 p. m. No sprinkling shall be done during a fire. The city reserves the right to restrict the sprinkling privilege during break downs or temporary shortage of water from any cause.

Some of the water rates in effect Jan. 1, 1913 were: Dwellings—Private 6 rooms or less $9.00 per year. With kitchen sink $10.00 per year. Private with 6 to 10 rooms $10.00 per year. With kitchen sink $11.00. Each wash basin in residence $1.00 per year. Each additional family in same house $4.00 per year.

Bath Tubs—Private $3.00 per year.

Carolinda Hales Has Prize-Winning Story Printed In Commercial Appeal Sunday

(The following story, "Sulphur Spots" by Carolinda Hales of Country Club Courts in Fulton, appeared in Sunday's Commercial Appeal. It received honorable mention in Captain Jerry's 1958 Arthur Contest recently. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hales.)

By Carolinda Hales
Late one night as I was driving home, my engine choked and sputtered. Suddenly, I realized I was alone on a rainy night, out of gas.

I locked my doors and rolled up the windows, while all about me was drenched with rain. As I stared out into the black, I gasped! I saw a small, but bright light just in front of my car! The hood on my car raised up and out came two yellow spots where one's eyes would be, and then spots where one's fingers would be.

Fearful Sight?
Although the doors were locked, the invisible body climbed in and sat down. I covered in the corner, quivering with fright like a scared rabbit.

After about an hour of this, the door creaked open, and out crawled my visitor. I breathed a sigh of relief. Out of curiosity, I tried to start my car. To my dumbfounded it started! I drove on through the darkness, two spots showed up again! This was too much for me! I fainted!

Those Spots Again
The next morning I woke up warm and comfortable in my own bed, 20 miles from the party I had been to the night before! Confused, I asked myself if it was a dream or did it really happen.

I ate my breakfast and started to go to work, still asking myself, "Was it a dream or did it really happen?"

Suddenly something shone on the seat of my car. I felt of them, smelled them. They were sulphur spots!

How Clean-Up Pays You

You may have thought of the cost of fixing up and decorating your home during the coming Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up program. But, do you realize that a small outlay of time and money is going to actually pay you large dividends?

A house and yard that have been thoroughly cleaned, repaired, and planted will give you added real value should you wish to sell. Clean premises will considerably reduce the chance that you will ever stand over a rubble of what was once your home and your cherished possessions, gutted by fire.

Your family will enjoy better health as mosquitoes, flies, and rats lose their favorite homes of filth. There will be fewer chances of accidents to toddlers and elderly persons since you will have followed Clean-Up safety suggestions.

Your children will learn the thrill of working together for a common goal in contrast to challenging society as juvenile delinquents. And you will have increased enjoyment from living in clean, attractive surroundings.

So, you see, you can't afford not to Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up, starting right now.

WARNING

Don't let the "Gypsies" ruin you on aluminum siding for your home. ALUMINUM SIDING IS WONDERFUL, PERMANENT SIDING for a home. Properly and fully installed by conscientious workman, it lasts for the life of the house, never needs paint or attention. It is expensive, and that is the kind of service you have paid for.

THE GYPSIES ARE HERE

They'll sell you an order of aluminum siding for whatever you will pay for it. They have no fixed cost. They'll sell it for anywhere from $60 to $114 a square. Their paper states their siding is guaranteed for 35 years. This guarantee isn't worth FIVE CENTS. They often jack the price of a job up $300 and then generously give a "300 gift certificate". Are you being kidded into thinking you are getting something for nothing? They don't give you a COMPLETE job; they leave off various parts of trim, etc necessary to give you a complete siding job. A proper aluminum siding job involves all of these features for COMPLETENESS.

DON'T BUY HIGH-PRESSURE SELLING

Think before you sign anything; sometimes it's a good idea to "sleep on it" for a day or so. Shop around with other dealers who are local. Any salesman who tells you that his time is too valuable to come back to see you again is plainly telling you that his company will be too busy to listen to your complaints after the job is through. Is THAT the kind of service you want to buy?

The Gypsies Have Ruined The Market

In the Paducah area the gypsies have so completely ruined the siding market that what should be a fine quality product backed by a proper guarantee, installed by competent workmen and put on to last for many years, has gone sour. Sometimes they overcharge way beyond the honest cost of a job. Sometimes they charge far below the honest market price of an honest job, and give you exactly what you pay for. NO SIDING JOB IS ANY BETTER THAN THE WORKMANSHIP THAT GOES INTO IT.

DON'T BE A SUCKER FOR THE GYPSIES

DON'T SIGN ANY PAPERS on a siding job from an itinerant salesman until you have checked his prices and specifications with your local dealers. You're spending YOUR MONEY; get your money's worth. Our advice is for you to do a bit of shopping. We have several local dealers that will give you the best they have in the way of advice, workmanship and price. See your local dealers first.

Jobs have been sold in this town from 60c per ft. to $1.14 per ft. Normal price is 70c per ft. and this includes ALL the extras and not just part of them.

First Car In Greenville, Ky. Scared Too Many Hogs And Had To Be Sold

We are indebted to Christine (Mrs. Robert) Baits of Fulton for the following, taken from the Greenville (Ky.) Leader. Christine, a native of Greenville, happened to be rummaging through some old papers recently, ran across this one and enjoyed reading it so much that she sat down and copied parts of it for a story herewith.

—The eds.

Reminiscing—Greenville 1907 (Clippings taken from "The Greenville Leader"—Muhlenburg County, Kentucky.)

The Shakespeare Club met last Friday evening. On account of the rain, some of the members had great difficulty in getting home. When they reached Cherry Street, the stepping stones were entirely covered with mud and water. One of the gentlemen returned to the house for matches and by their light, they finally succeeded in getting across.

It is expected that lights will be turned on Saturday night in stores, residences and offices that have been wired.

A city ordinance to prevent stock from running at large in the city of Greenville is meeting with much opposition by the owners of cows and hogs. The cows and hogs have been getting considerable attention from the police and there have been several arrests.

The passengers to Louisville missed the train last Thursday on account of the hack being stalled on Town Hill. It took four mules to pull it out of the mud.

There have been few ladies on the streets the last few days. Only those with weights in their skirts dare venture forth in this March wind.

It is rumored that Paris is now sponsoring silk stockings for ladies. We don't think the American women will adopt such an extravagant style.

Mr. Buren Martin has sold his automobile which was the first in Greenville. It frightened the horses and caused so many to run away that the ladies would not venture out in their phaetons and surreys until they had telephoned and asked if he was out. This caused him to sell.

1777—CLARK GETS BIG POWDER SUPPLY FOR SETTLERS

Gun powder was sorely needed at Fort Harrod to defend it against increasing Indian raids. Geo. R. Clark went to the Virginia Legislature and negotiated for 500 pounds of powder. The big supply was brought to Pittsburg, then was hid near Maysville. Capt. Jones led a small detail from the Fort to get the powder. They were attacked by Indians. Jones and several others were killed. Then Col. Harrod set out with another party and successfully brought the big supply to the Fort.

In Kentucky's historic past, just as today, many of our citizens have always enjoyed a glass of beer. The brewing industry makes jobs for thousands of our residents. The sale of this light, bright beverage of moderation under orderly conditions is an important objective of the United States Brewers Foundation. Our continuing educational program helps beer retailers maintain their high standards.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS IN TENNESSEE

We have asked the Tennessee Public Service Commission for authority to make certain adjustments in electric rates charged to our Tennessee customers.

Our increased costs for equipment, labor and fuel since World War II have made this request necessary. In the past we have been able to make repeated reductions in our rates. This is the first time we have ever asked for an increase.

The proposed adjustments are estimated to increase our revenues $28,434 a year. This will be used, among other purposes, to provide additional and better service to you, to improve our facilities for serving you, and to insure continued efficient service in the future.

This will mean an 11.5 per cent increase to the average residential customer and a 10 per cent increase to the average commercial customer. No changes are proposed in the rates for off-peak water heating, street lighting and some other services.

A hearing on our application has been set by the Commission for 9:30 a. m., May 22, in Room 114, Floor C-1, Cordell Hull Building, Nashville.

Copies of the new rate schedules applicable have been furnished to the Mayors of the Cities and the County Judges in the territory served.

The proposed rate schedules are available for your inspection at our offices at New Tazewell, and Middleboro, and Fulton,
Kentucky.

Yours very truly,

Kentucky Utilities Company

Miss Weeks' essay follows:
Home and Community
"Spring Housecleaning
By Martha Jane Weeks

"When Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?" When spring arrives each year, the thoughts of many turn to "spring housecleaning". But why think only of cleaning our homes in the spring? We should be concerned with the cleanliness of our community also.

Some consider beauty as the first and foremost reason for doing any kind of cleaning and painting. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." Everyone appreciates and enjoys beauty, but there are many who give little thought to beautifying their own homes and communities. Perhaps some people do not know how much the beauty of a home can be improved with a little care. A small amount of work may be all that is necessary to transform an unsightly yard or garden into an attractive one. A very small amount of money for painting, or a little attention given to repair of house, outbuilding, or fence may be all that is needed to make the appearance of a home far more attractive.

A wise expenditure that our city governments could make would be for certain properties that belong to the city. Who would object to the placing of an attractive shrub on a now bare, street corner?

A fundamental principle for cleaning a home is to prevent disease and sickness, but unfortunately there are those who disregard similar areas OUTSIDE the home. An epidemic can easily start from the drainage ditch in someone's back yard, but with only a little time and effort to clean it, this risk can be reced.

Maybe you have passed a house in the summer that was partly hidden by the small "jungle" growing around it. If the hedges were kept trimmed, the trees were pruned, and the lawn was kept mowed, the looks of this house would be greatly improved while at the same time, the dangers from snakes and insects would be lessened.

Another reason for keeping our homes clean is to guard against fire hazards. It is often said (and a true statement indeed!) that old rags shouldn't be left lying around the house because they might catch fire; but that old pile of rubbish in the far corner of the back yard is also highly susceptible to fire and is an eye-sore to the community.

Dead grasses in the yard are disfiguring, and there is also danger from fire. A burning cigarette, tossed heedlessly in it could easily result in a conflagration. Why not burn our yards off ourselves when the frost has killed the grass, and save the firemen many trips.

Beauty, health, and fire have been listed as primary reasons for Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up Week, but not to be overlooked is convenience. Most people are interested in themselves more than anyone else, and they are continually seeking ways to add to their own convenience. When we clean and brighten our homes, we are benefited because we derive satisfaction from admiring our own endeavors, and at the same time, others appreciate our efforts because they are proud of a community where homes and grounds are kept neat and clean.
